

SPARK! at Schlitz Audubon

Schlitz Audubon
Nature Center

This special program is designed for people going through cognitive changes, such as memory loss, to participate in alongside their caregivers. Each session is devoted to learning about the simple beauty found in nature and how it enriches our lives. Programs are led by Director of Education Tom Finley, and take place indoors, but may include a brief outdoor component close to the building. FREE to participants and caregivers.

Programs take place 1:00pm-2:00pm
